THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

by Stan Schepers, APC President

Hello everyone, well here we are at the end of another hunting season and the last meeting of the season. Hope everyone had a great season, as a club it was good. We WON the Annual Multi - Club Hunt, with the help of some new members! Great Job Guys!!!

This month's meeting is going to be a movie, BBQ, and awards. The (NTA) National Trappers Association, has made a movie about the circle of life; it puts hunting, fishing, an trapping in perspective with the big picture of life. I will have a copy and will show it at the next meeting. This is the first real proactive thing done in a while.

Just because we don't meet in June & July there is still a lot going on: free fishing day, the APC helps sponsor the fishing clinic in Kingman & Seligman. Also the Boquillas Ranch Cleanup, the Arizona Deer Association supports this and always feeds everyone. This helps keep the ranch open. And the main event of the summer, July 21st, 22nd, & 23rd will be the Trapper's Convention. If you've never been, you'll want to check this out. It's a great time!!!

Thanks to all APC members who showed up in Kingman for the Mt. Lion calling seminar, we had 63 people show up for this. Mike Kannapel put on a very thorough and very informative seminar. Some of you may not realize this but Mike has called in more than 200 Lions.

Everyone's always asking me how to call a lion and I always give the same answer. . . I never call for just lions. I just go calling. Not this year, but a few years back I called every weekend. I put myself in the field and good things happened. . . One thing I learned from Mike Kannapel was if you are just calling for lions then you need to spend more time scouting for them and know where they are and then call until they come in. But Mike's key is that he already knew there was a lion in the area when he began calling. That's the key to successfully calling lions. THANKS MIKE!!

As for the actual hunt on Saturday and Sunday only 10 teams hunted, the wind blew hard both days and no one checked in with a lion. It was rough hunting, but we got to see some new country. It seems this will become an annual hunt like the Antelope Eaters Hunt, but will be called Sheep Eaters Hunt and will be held in October, so next season will be a busy one. We will be hunting the World Championship, Multi-Club Hunt, Save-a-Fawn Hunt. . .

I couldn't make it to the Annual Club Shoot-Out on April 29th, but I heard it was a great time!! CONGRATS to Craig Gombos for winning.

Hope to see everyone at the meeting on May 11th and if anyone would like to bring something to share besides the hotdogs and hamburgers we are having, feel free to call me.

Hope to see you all there.

Stan

THE HUNT REPORT

by Dusty Moiser, Hunts Co-Chair

As usual our Annual Shoot-Out was a great day. Having the range to ourselves always makes it nice. Thank you Andy Musacchio and Dan Solow for arranging everything and running the events. Congratulations to Craig Gombos for winning the main event, the top six places where separated by only two points. The competition was stiff, the tie breaker was determined by number of bullseyes. Here are the top scores: Craig Gombos with 24/10; Andy Musacchio & Mike Burris with 24/9 ; Dusty Moiser with 23/10 ; Larry Walden with 23/9 ; Mike Clerc with 22/8. Also shooting in the event where Larry Scribner, Ken McKenna, Mike Mosier, Chris & Cameron Clerc. The long range rifle event was shooting at balloons at 435 yards. Two dollars to enter with a 50/50 split. The first round was won by Ken McKenna and the second round was won by Cameron Clerc. Congratulations they both won $11.00. The long range pistol was a balloon at 296 yards, open sights, straight wall case. One dollar per shot, again a 50/50 split. Well, after about 50 shots the balloon won and the club got some money to help with the gourmet meal. After a great lunch prepared by chief Mike Burris we moved on to the rattle battle. This is a team event, a two on two gun fight against hordes of attacking javelina and chicken steel silhouettes. The undefeated champions where Andy and Craig. This is always a fun day, with friendly competition, great conversation, just a relaxing time getting to know some of the club members better. Try and make it next year.

The hunt records have all been submitted and the totals are in. Thank you to everyone who responded. A copy of our club totals was sent to Pat Barber the Fur Biologist for the Arizona Game and Fish Department. Hopefully this will help in building a database for predators in Arizona. Some of our top hunters are: Ned Burris 462; Craig Gombos 418; Mike Kannapel 386; Bill Baber 278; Terry Jones 254; John Swartzlow 212; Bob Bogaard 206; Stan Schepers 178; Terry Schardyn 138 and Don Llona 122. A copy of the tally sheet sent to AzG&F is elsewhere in the newsletter.

MY FIRST KNIFE KILL

by Sid Chalasani - APC Member

I went Dallas on a business trip, from there I was asked to go to Austin as well. As I knew that there was a hunting ranch near Austin, I decided to call them and see if they would let me hunt on their property the next day which was a Saturday. They said that they were fully booked for the weekend and referred me to guy named Ryan. Ryan is a dog handler and he agreed to take me out hunting along with couple of my friends for $500.00. He guaranteed three pigs for this price. I told him that I had no guns with me. He was very nice and told me that he will provide us with couple of .223 rifles. (Just so that all of you know the prices he offered me are like this, if we are going to hunt by ourselves sitting on their tree stands then they will charge $125.00 per person. If it is a guided hunt with no dogs then it is $150.00 per person. If the hunt is with dogs, then the price is $250.00 per person and they guarantee one pig per person, of course there is some bargaining and the price was fixed at $500.00 for three pig guarantee)

We started at 4:30am in Austin and met Ryan at a gas station about 50 miles southeast of Austin. We got into his truck and met another person, Tom, over at their family ranch of 800 acres. Ryan put the tracking collars on all the 8 dogs and we started the hunt at 7:00am. Ryan left the rifles in the truck and brought only one gun with him, I don't know the caliber of the gun but he said that it is enough to kill hogs. Dogs were running ahead of us and all five of us were sitting in a Polaris following the dogs. Within about 10 minutes the dogs caught some scent and they took off into the woods and we heard lot of commotion. Tom and Ryan took off behind the dogs. We jumped off the vehicle and had to jump a fence and saw the dogs in a big pile of dried out logs, all excited and baying. They have cornered a group of 5 javelina in there and it was a very noisy affair. By the time I got there the dogs already killed one javelina and I saw two javelina run away and there were two more in the brush. Ryan asked me if I want to kill javelina, I declined it as I was not sure on what the licensing requirement was on javelina in Texas and I was not in a mood to eat javelina meat.

To my surprise, Ryan shot two of the javelina. He later told me that he doesn't want javelina on his property and that is why is shot them. Also he was referring to the javelina as pigs and I was worried that he will count the three javelina towards the guarantee that he gave us.

Well, we started again and drove all over the 800 acres and did not find any pigs. So Ryan and Tom called a few other ranch owners and took their permission to hunt on their ranches and we drove till 12:00pm and couldn't find any hogs. I forgot to mention that the javelina tore up about 4 dogs and two of them were hurt really bad and both of those dogs got to ride along with us. As I expected, Ryan started saying that we killed three pigs and that takes care of the guarantee but he is a nice guy and said that he will take us to a different ranch after lunch to see if we can find a hog. I told him that we had to leave by 2:30pm.

We switched the dogs which were hurt and added 4 new dogs and started again at 1:00pm. It looked like there were deer under every rock in this part of Texas. We saw lots of white tail deer in all these ranches, we also saw about 12 turkey.

We finally saw a big hog running across and the dogs started the chase. Tom and Ryan were gone in a flash behind the dogs. They left us three guys behind with the rifle. I grabbed the rifle and all three of us ran behind them, we had tough time jumping a fence but when we caught up with them, we saw that the dogs cornered the huge hog in the middle of a little swamp. Ryan went from behind and grabbed the hogs hind legs. It is a scary sight to see him holding the hogs legs and the dogs barking and the hog shouting trying to shake him off.

Both of my friends who joined me didn't want to come anywhere closer than 70 yards to the all the action. Tom was calling one of us to come over and kill it, I was about to go into the swamp when Tom took away the rifle from me and handed me a knife saying that the dogs are going to get hurt if we shoot the pig with a gun. Talk about getting scared, I mean, my jaws dropped. There was no time; Ryan couldn't hold it any longer, so he was shouting at us. I grabbed the knife and got into the knee deep mud and walked towards the hog. Adrenaline flooded my veins and I was still scared. I went closer to Ryan and he was saying something like "don't stab" I couldn't hear a thing nor understand what he meant at that time. I went ahead and tried to stab the hog at the sweet spot, but I hit a rib and the knife bounced back. Ryan got visibly upset and he was shouting at Tom to come over and kill the hog. I was thinking that he was calling Tom as I am not able to do it. I went at it again and I took a big swing and stabbed it and this time I didn't miss it. Blood gushed out; I left the knife in the hog and backed off. Tom came over and by the time he came to us the hog stopped resisting and it was all over. I went to it again and pulled the knife out. The hog twitched in the water a little bit and then lay still. Ryan and Tom pulled it out of the water and we all took pictures of it. This hog probably weighed 230lbs. Ryan told me that I should not take a big swing as I could have stabbed the dogs. The right way to kill the hog is to hold the knife close to its skin and shove it in with force (I guess, if you are still alive by then).

Ryan told us that the hog was too big and the meat can't be eaten, so we had him cut its head and took the head with us. As my policy is to eat at least a little bit of what I kill, I requested him to cut the back straps. He cut the back straps and they were still twitching when we put them in the cooler. I paid Ryan $100.00 more to do a European mount out of the hog head and ship it to me.

The moral of the story is, before you hunt with any of them Texans; tell them about yourself and your experience as they will assume that you are a hard-core hunter.

BOQUILLAS RANCH CLEAN-UP

by Don Martin - Member

This year, the annual Boquillas Ranch Clean-Up project will be held on June 24th. We will be meeting at Pica Camp at 8:00am for the briefing and photo op with Tim Pender from the Arizona Game and Fish Department. We'll be camping in the same area (Pine Canyon) and of course this entire plan is contingent upon the Boquillas being open for sportsmen, but right now, there is no reason why it won't.

I'm hoping that the Arizona Deer Association will work with the Mohave Sportsman Club to do the cooking for us again, and hope to get a few prizes donated for those that attend.

I'll be putting together a little flyer with directions as it gets closer to the actual event. Hope to see you all there.

GUN LAW UPDATE

May 4, 2006

From territorial days until 1997, a person in Arizona was innocent unless proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. It's the American way, and it was our way, as it should be.

Then, in 1997, in the dark of night and through a political trick, prosecutors got the law changed so that people involved in self defense had to admit guilt before proving their own innocence by "justification," a complex and expensive legal process.

It was a return to the Napoleonic Code, an abomination, a reversal of what makes America great, and the prosecutors who snuck this through our legislature without debate should have had their ethics investigated (at least). But it did make it easy for them to convict people. It was a citizen's worst nightmare and a prosecutor's wet dream. Many of your fellow Arizonans suffered under this law, and it put you at grave risk all these years, though you probably didn't know it. The "news" media never mentioned it.

Today, I am happy to report that this travesty has been reversed, and innocence without proven guilt is now the statewide standard once again. With the signing of Senate Bill 1145 (linked below), Arizona joins 48 states that recognize the burden to prove guilt in self-defense cases must remain on the state, and that every person must enjoy the presumption of innocence. Ohio, which suffered a similar deceptive corruption of its laws, now remains the only state out of step with the American system of justice.

This news has circulated already, so if you're hearing this from me, you need to get on the list of the new Arizona Citizens Defense League (linked below), one of two groups that spearheaded this desperately needed reform. The other team working for you of course is the Arizona State Rifle and Pistol Association (linked below), whose NRA-affiliated lobbyists also carried the water that quenched this awful fire. Links to "get more informed already" are also listed.

SB 1145, also called the Castle Doctrine, did several other things to strengthen your right to defend yourself, your family, your home, and more -- from vicious predators who prey on society -- who are all too often protected by weak or bad law. Plain-English descriptions of the new bills will be posted at gun-laws.com, as soon as I can get to it (there's a lot on my plate). Check there soon.

And now -- please do not gripe about how bad some things are, get on those lists (it's free) and even send them membership dues so you can proudly be part of the defense of civil liberties in our great state.

Also enacted in this session of the legislature was House Bill 2074. This eliminates the two-hour training requirement for permit renewals after it becomes effective (90 days after legislature closes, so probably late summer or early fall); permits will still have to be renewed every five years; also, most other state's permits will be valid here, ending a hopelessly complex tangle of recognition and reciprocity formulas (exact details are still not perfectly clear, I'll post them soon); and it makes other technical corrections and changes.

Also enacted is Senate Bill 1339 (linked below), which affects the rights and limitations on juvenile delinquents to keep and bear arms. Details will be posted shortly.

Also, SB1425, which would have prevented the Governor from confiscating people's firearms during a declared emergency (like we saw happening in Louisiana), was vetoed by the Governor, who said it was too broad, and not to worry, she won't use it. There is currently a Governor-declared emergency at the border, where Minutemen must to observe and report (minutemanhq.com). An attempt to override her veto failed by one vote.

Finally, the Breakfast at Denny's Bill (the one the lamestream media calls shotguns in nightclubs) has been revived by Sen. Jack Harper, as an amendment to an existing bill (linked below). It would allow CCW permit holders and others to carry firearms while eating in a restaurant, and allows restaurants to post signs about firearms. Its chances of passage are unknown, stay tuned. Or join the lists, they're faster than I am.
