THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

by Dan Solow, APC President

Howdy all APC members,

A big thank you to our guest speakers. first Steve Ferrell, Deputy Director from Arizona Game and Fish Department. Steve discussed the non-resident hunting tag draw issue. This system of issuing tags may go to a commercial, non-commercial use system. That means that hunters could not sell their game or parts of their game, where a commercial guide/hunter could. Steve said plans are still being worked on, but had to be done soon, to be enacted before the next hunting season.

Our second guest speaker was Ed Murdoch, his fine seminar was on bear hunting. Ed's presentation included a slide show, which showed areas to look for to hunt. Also, his slides showed some of the hazards of the back country, snakes and other things that sting.

Another big thank you to Russ Runyan, owner of Decor Unique. Russ has framed a picture for us, and has given the club a very generous discount. The reason and story is, the Mesa Fraternal Order of Police (FOP), does not charge us a fee for the use there meeting hall for our monthly meetings. However, in exchange we do some maintenance work and other things to help them out.

This particular frame was for a picture that is hanging in the FOP hall of Marshal Hiram S. Peterson. Marshal Peterson was a town marshal in Mesa for approximately 5 years, before Mesa became incorporated. On the night of November 12, 1913, Marshal Peterson witnessed two suspects who were attempting to steal a bicycle from a blacksmiths shop, in downtown Mesa. Giving chase on his own bicycle, when Marshal Peterson caught up to the suspects at about Country Club and University, a struggle ensued. during that struggle shots were fired. one suspect was shot and Marshal Peterson was shot five times. Later that night Marshal Peterson died from his wounds. A posse was assembled to track the suspects. As the suspects fled, they took two horses from a local farmer. Two days later, the posse caught up with the two suspects, north of Wickenburg, were they were arrested and brought back to Phoenix. At the defendants trial, they were found guilty, and were sentenced to hang by the neck until dead. After numerous appeals, one was released in 1919, and the other in 1933. So today we honor this law enforcement officer for making the ultimate sacrifice.

APC member Russ Runyan, has said that he would give any APC member a discount on anything in his store. Please see Russ's ad in the classified section of the newsletter. Thanks Russ.

It'll feel good to be outdoors again. With the cooler weather, comes our first novice hunt in October. if you are going out as a novice, here are a few things that you should know. Before you get to your first stand you should have talked to the person that is taking you out. Some of the things that should be discussed are:

- no slamming of car doors, tailgates, etc.
- no loud talking outside the vehicle.

COMING EVENTS

October General Meeting . . . . 14 Oct '04
"Everything you ever wanted to know about predator calling"
 October Board Meeting . . . . . 25 Oct '04
 November General Meeting . . . 11 Nov '04
"Predator Skinning" - Jeff Serdy
 November Board Meeting . . . . 29 Nov '04
 World Championship Contest 2, 3 & 4 Dec '04

Monthly APC meetings are held at the Mesa FOP Hall, 1450 E. Main Street, Mesa, from 7:00 p.m. until ????. Board meetings are held at the Arizona Wildlife Federation office at 7:00 p.m.

- safety first when loading and unloading firearms
- always keep the muzzle of your gun pointed in a safe direction
- always keep your finger off the trigger until ready to shoot.

You should also understand that your experienced hunting partner might not take you out to his number one spot. He isn't there to show you where to go, rather he is there to show you what to do, teach you how to choose your spot, how to setup once on the stand and lanes of fire. He is also there to help instruct you on calling those wily coyotes. If you are the guest, it might not be a bad idea to pay for some of the fuel used on this outing. So go afield, have fun and above all, be safe.

As you might know or may have heard, the assault weapons ban is no more. In Arizona, you can now legally own high capacity magazines, bayonet lugs, collapsible stocks, and flash suppressers. Wow, this ten year ban sure took a huge bite out of crime, sure, right. I hope we have learned a lesson from this bad feel good legislation, just lets not have this happen again.

For all of our members, the APC is raffling a Weatherby rifle in 30-06, only 60 tickets will be sold. Please see Jerry Thorson at our monthly meeting for your ticket(s).

On a more serious item, November is fast approaching. In early November, we will be voting for a President of our great country, and many of our legislators, both on Federal and State levels. These legislators are the same people that will decide on you having firearms or not. so please go and vote on November 2nd!!!! Do not fall into the trap of thinking that firearms are for sporting purposes only, we should not have to defend the use for just owning a firearm, for our own reasons, so again, get out and vote!!!!!! It would even help to join, or contribute time or money to a pro-gun organization such as the NRA. Again get out and vote on election day!!!!

Remember to visit your local merchants for your hunting needs, they do donate to our club. Also, I hope to see you at our next meeting, and have fun, but be safe out there.

Dan

PROGRAM REPORT

by Mike Kannapel, Program Director

The ARIZONA PREDATOR CALLERS are presenting for their October general meeting a Predator Calling Seminar, everything you ever wanted to know about predator calling, including camo, electronic calls, mouth calls, stand setup, how long to call and when to call. This will be put on by club members to usher in our Novice Hunts in October and November.

The meeting will be held in the Fraternal Order of Police Lodge #9 at 1450 E Main Street. The FOP Lodge is on the North side of Main Street between Stapley and Gilbert road in Mesa. The meeting is free to APC members and students under 18, and $5 for non-members. Refreshments and door prizes are included in the admission price.

Our November meeting will feature Jeff Serdy of AJI Sporting Goods, and APC member, with his outstanding skinning demo of predators.

Our December meeting will again feature Steve Ferrell, Deputy Director of the Arizona Game and Fish Department. Steve will discuss the North American Model of Wildlife Management, as well as answering any questions hunters may have on the 2005 draw. The draw will not be available on the internet next year. The club will also put on another calling demonstration.

The board voted to look into the possibility of staging a May awards banquet at the Mining Camp Restaurant if there is enough interest. If anyone has any strong feelings about this topic please let the board know.

The APC Board voted to donate $1,000 to Childrens Charities at our November meeting.

Ned Burris and Stan Schepers will attend the October 10, 2004 Arizona Game and Fish Hunter Safety Instructors meeting in Dugas, Arizona, to help train the instructors in the art of predator calling. The board voted to give Ned 12 predator calls to give away to the individuals that he and Stan take out for the instruction. The more people we can get started predator calling the better especially since drawing a big game tag in this state is next to impossible.

World Championship Calling Contest. This event was moved to Elko, Nevada for 2004. The dates for this years hunt are December 2, 3 & 4, 2004. Any interested parties that did not participate in the event the last two years in Arizona can call Walt Gardner at (775) 779-2201 for an application. If you participated last year or the year before you will automatically be sent an application next week.

THE HUNT REPORT

by Stan Schepers, Hunts Co-Chair

Hello Everyone,

It's that time of year again, I've been waiting all summer for this. . . It's starting to cool down!! It's time to check your guns and gear and make sure the truck is ready for another season. Usually by the end of October the fur is beginning to prime up, I can't wait!!

Remember that we have a Novice Hunt scheduled for Saturday, October 16th. To sign up contact either myself or Dusty Mosier at the meeting on October 14th. After the hunt we will meet and share stories, eat and hopefully skin some animals. We will need some experienced callers to help out too.

I want to remind you to keep a journal of your hunts and keep track of your kills for caller of the year points. This will help us at the end of the season total up how well we did as a club removing predators. Dusty and I have E-Z forms available to help you.

Get out there and vote for those people who support hunting.

Be Safe, Have Fun, Shoot to Kill!!!

Stan

A REQUEST FOR HELP. . .

by Mike Clerc, Newsletter Editor

In late August, I received the following email from a lady in Southern Arizona, requesting some help with a problem bobcat in their neighborhood:

Mike,

I'm not sure you're the right person to contact, but we've been complaining about some neighbors feeding and photographing a bobcat in the neighborhood, to the point of this cat roaming the streets and houses and becoming a nuisance. This morning I spotted the bobcat leaving one neighbors yard and walking upto the doorway of another neighbors home. After which it walked up the street until it saw something and then moved faster. We live in the mountains of Pusch Ridge and realize there's wildlife around, but it's gotten to a point where we are not able to even let our dogs out in the walled yards alone to go to the bathroom, for fear of a cat getting it. There are also many homeowners, of all ages, walking their dogs here.

We would like to see if someone could talk to the main offenders, as they don't listen to any of us homeowners, and don't seem to care about others and their REAL pets. Even all the recent problems with bobcats in Oro Valley, hasn't convinced them not to entice the wildlife to their back doors. Would you please forward this onto the appropriate person in Game and Fish, if I have contacted you in error. I would like someone to respond from the department as to what can be done if anything. My husband has contacted the department before, and his message got transferred to a gal by the name of Alyssa at extension 531, and she offered to come to the next association meeting. We would like to see if someone could speak to the 2 people most responsible for feeding these animals raw meet, and coaxing them right upto their doors and patios for pictures! This is putting every other homeowner and pet owner at risk of a surprise cat on the patio or in their fenced yard.

Please let me know what is done with this letter of complaint. Thanks for listening!

Sincerely,
Betty Rutter

At the September general meeting, I cornered Steve Ferrell after his wonderful presentation and presented him with this email and asked if there was something that he could do to assist these folks with their problem. He assured me that he would personally see to it that it was addressed.

Well, on September 30th I received the following email from Mike Senn from AG&F:

Mr. Clerc,

I tried to call you earlier, but hadn't gotten a response. Hopefully, you're out in the field somewhere with a tag in your pocket. Anyway, just wanted to take a minute to let you know that we had responded to a woman, Ms. Betty Rutter, that had sent an e-mail to you at the end of August regarding someone in her neighborhood that was feeding wildlife. Our officers spoke with Ms. Rutter and the neighbor who readily admitted to feeding wildlife so he could photograph them. We discussed the nuisance and potential safety issue he was creating, but he basically told us he was going to continue unless it was expressly illegal to do so. We advised him that he could be cited for creating a criminal nuisance should someone be bit as a result of his feeding wildlife. However, we were unable to cite him because there currently is no law or ordinance that prohibits the feeding of wildlife in Pima County. This is a difficult and frustrating situation, but unfortunately, not uncommon throughout Arizona. It is one of the reasons the Department will be pushing for anti-feeding legislation during the upcoming legislative session. Any support we could get on this issue would be greatly appreciated. Please feel free to contact me if you would like any additional information. Thanks for your assistance.

Sincerely,
Mike Senn
Assistant Director of Field Operations
Arizona Game & Fish Department

As you can see, these well meaning individuals are not only creating problems for wildlife, but also for their neighbors. I asked Mike Senn if I could run the letters in our newsletter and this was his response:

"No problem. Maybe it will help us gain some support for trying to get some anti-feeding legislation passed. We could really use it. In cases like this, especially when the County Attn. is generally unwilling to prosecute for criminal nuisance we really hit a brick wall".

Call or write your state representatives concerning this issue, as this type of situation will only get worse as more and more new families move into the state who are unfamiliar with their surroundings and don't understand the damage they can do.

NATIONAL HUNTING AND FISHING DAY, 2004

THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary
(Crawford, Texas)

For Immediate Release
September 24, 2004

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION - America is a land of majestic beauty, and we take pride in our wildlife, forests, mountains, lakes, rivers, and coastlines. Outdoor recreation is an important part of our Nation's heritage. On National Hunting and Fishing Day, we celebrate the remarkable progress we have made in conserving our environment and recognize those who have worked to conserve our natural resources. America's hunters and anglers represent the great spirit of our country and are among our Nation's foremost conservationists. These citizens have worked to protect habitat and restore fish and wildlife populations. They volunteer their time, talents, and energy to countless conservation projects, because they recognize the importance of maintaining the natural abundance of our country for future generations.

My Administration is committed to achieving a cleaner, safer, and healthier environment for all Americans, including our hunters and anglers. My Administration has expanded opportunities to hunt and fish at national wildlife refuges and improved habitat on public and private lands. We have cut phosphorus releases into our rivers and streams, and I signed the Healthy Forests Restoration Act to help protect our forests from the risk of wildfires.

Americans are blessed to live amid many wonders of nature, and we have a responsibility to be good stewards of the land. I commend all who advance conservation and help our citizens enjoy the benefits of our environment. These efforts ensure that our national heritage remains a source of pride for our citizens, our communities, and our Nation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE W. BUSH, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, do hereby proclaim September 25, 2004, as National Hunting and Fishing Day. I call upon the people of the United States to join me in recognizing the contributions of America's hunters and anglers, and all those who work to conserve our Nation's fish and wildlife resources.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this twenty-fourth day of September, in the year of our Lord two thousand four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and twenty-ninth.

GEORGE W. BUSH

SHOTGUN INCIDENT WORSENS FOR KERRY

submitted by Alan Korwin
BLOOMFIELD PRESS

New legal research by gun-law expert Alan Korwin indicates that merely accepting a gift shotgun from a private party out of his home state would be a five-year federal felony for Massachusetts Senator John Kerry, the Democratic candidate for President [see United States Code, section 922(a)(9)]. Giving him the gun would also be a felony [922(a)(5)].

National news reports picture Kerry proudly holding the gift in Racine, West Virginia, during a Labor Day celebration. Bringing the gun back to his home state would be an additional five-year federal felony, under the massive and bewildering federal gun laws, as previously reported by Bloomfield Press.

The shotgun, identified in published reports as a semiautomatic Browning, was actually a semiautomatic Remington model 11-87. News reports suggesting it was a gift from Remington would be an illegal donation from a corporation to a candidate, and the value of the shotgun would exceed campaign donation limits as well.

In a statement published in Gun Week, Remington CEO Tommy Millner denied any involvement with the gift, saying, "Rest assured, we were neither aware of this presentation in advance nor in any way supportive of its intent to support Senator Kerry. In fact, the Company remains amused by ongoing photos of Senator Kerry shooting without either ear or eye protection while discharging a firearm."

Reportedly outraged at the implication of an illegal gift, Remington rushed the release a public statement denying any association with the gift, saying, "Remington Arms Company has made no endorsement of any presidential candidate. This endorsement and presentation by the UMWA was made independently of the Remington Arms Company and the Company did not coordinate with or endorse the actions of the union."

A local of United Mine Workers of America (UMWA) represents workers at the Remington plant in New York where the highly regarded shotguns are made. UMWA President Cecil E. Roberts presented the gift according to Gun Week.

The greatest news error however appears to be that Mr. Kerry may have not accepted this gift, despite so many reports to the contrary, which cast the Senator as a pro-gun politician.

Reporter Matt Drudge had previously noted that Kerry introduced a bill which would have outlawed this particular sporting shotgun, because it is semi-automatic and has "any characteristic that can function as a grip."

Dave Workman, senior editor at Gun Week, contacted Washington, D.C.-based Kerry campaign spokeswoman Kathy Roeder, who said the shotgun was, "returned to the person who bought it," and that the gun is still in West Virginia. This reportedly took place immediately after all the photographs were taken of the Senator holding the gun. The actual current location of the shotgun is not known.

According to Workman's report in Gun Week, "Roeder acknowledged that Kerry could not legally have accepted the shotgun and taken it with him, anyway, under existing gun-control laws." It is not clear whether Roeder and the Kerry campaign were aware of this when the stories of the gift and photos were taken and widely circulated.

Questions as to Kerry's intent, in leading the media to believe he was in fact a gun supporter, by smiling and gladly receiving the shotgun gift, are unresolved as this Bloomfield Press news release was posted.

This places many news outlets in a difficult position. If they all retract their stories that Kerry accepted this gift, it will harm the image they conveyed of Kerry as a gun-friendly candidate, seen as necessary to win states like West Virginia. Al Gore lost largely democratic West Virginia (and Tennessee and Arkansas) in 2000 due to the gun issue, according to many observers.

News outlets are known to sometimes be reluctant to retract stories. If the media refuses to retract the stories, or if the Kerry campaign fails to issue a correction, then all the published articles and photos stand as evidence that the candidate committed the felony offense. Additional information is posted at the Bloomfield Press website, gunlaws.com, under the blue News Accuracy button.

In an effort to help smooth the waters, nearly 3,000 news outlets nationwide are being notified of this situation by Bloomfield Press. The public is encouraged to send this report to their local newspapers and broadcasters. It is hoped that the media will contact Kerry directly, and either retract the story, or confirm their account. Did John Kerry, in fact, receive a gift of a fine Remington shotgun?

If Kerry did accept the gift as widely reported, and as a legal matter, his transfer of it back to an unidentified person in West Virginia, without involvement of a licensed dealer, an FBI background check, and with no paper trail, may also be a felony.

Gun-law expert Korwin is again calling for calm, as these unbelievably confusing laws are sorted out, so the democratic candidate for president can continue his effort to attain the highest office in the land.

KNOW WHERE YOUR CANDIDATE STANDS . . .

submitted by Cindy Seff, APC Member

National Rifle Association president Kayne Robinson was recently interviewed on the Can & Company NRA News program and pointed out this interesting fact: "The only thing that all of the anti-gun and anti-hunting organizations and the pro-gun, pro-hunting organizations agree on completely is that Kerry is the most anti-gun candidate in U.S. history. The way you can prove that is to look up their ratings." The Brady Center and other gun control groups note that Kerry is 100 percent on their side in passing legislation to restrict gun ownership. Anti-hunting groups, specifically the U.S. Humane Society and Fund for Animals, also overwhelmingly approve of Kerry's voting record in Congress. NRA has rated Kerry an "F" on sportsmen's votes, and Gun Owners of America gives him a "zero" rating on firearm ownership and hunting issues. If that surprises you, find more about the candidates' positions at www.voteyoursport.com.
